GETTING READY TO GO

These are some ideas of what I should pack for my cruise: You can place an X in the box for the items you pack.

☐ Clothes

☐ Swimsuit
& Sandals

☐ Sunglasses

☐ Sunscreen

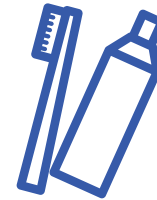

☐ Goggles

☐ Headphones
or Earplugs

☐ Tablet

☐ Toothbrush

MY FIRST DAY

GETTING TO THE PORT

- On the first day we will go to the port where my ship is.
- I will give my suitcases to a nice person with a cart called a porter.
- They will take my suitcases to my room on the ship for me.
- When I go into the building I have to go through a security screening.
- I might have to wait in a short line for my turn and I will have to listen and follow directions from the nice people at the security check.

CHECKING IN

- I will go into the building.
- I will go through a security screening.
- I might have to wait in a short line for my turn.
- I will listen and follow directions from the nice people at security.
- After the security screening, I will see more nice people.
- They will tell us where to go to check in.
- There might be a lot of people, but I won't have to wait to long.
- Then it will be time to get on the ship!

BOARDING THE SHIP

When I am waiting to get on the ship, I might feel different feelings.
I can always share my feelings with family and friends.

1 I'm happy
and confident.

☐

2 I'm feeling
OK.

3 I'm a bit worried.

☐

4 I might need some time out soon.

☐

5 I'm very angry
or worried.

EXPLORING

THE SHIP

- When I explore the ship, I can take the stairs to get from one floor to the next floor.
- I can use elevators on the ship to get around.
- Some of the elevators have windows so I can look up and down as I ride to the decks.

GOING TO THE MUSTER DRILL

- Everyone must review and emergency safety drill called an E-Muster Drill.
- Muster Drills will be done with an app on your phone.
- A parent or a trusted adult will show you and help.
